Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That deeds not words count these days.

—That those who stick are the only ones that count.

—That most often the things you get for nothing are usually worth just what you get them for. See?

—That a woman is running one of the biggest crap games in the city at her house. Shame.

—That Kansas City is absolutely devoid of backbone and real courage when it comes to dealing with strikes.

—That white folks will learn some day that the most dependable laborer in America is the Negro.

—That the man who does not use the experiences of 1918 to make his condition better in 1919 is not progressive.

—That the Kansas City Sun Tag Day team is the greatest bunch of steppers in the west and Betty and Sam are crazy about them. Didn't they go some?

—That another married woman was beat up Christmas day by "the other fellow." How does she think her hard working husband feels?

—That the world hates a quitter; that the reason why everybody loves and honors Prof. J. R. E. Lee. No yellow streak in him; no sir.

—That a worthless Negro was heard to boast on Eighteenth street Christmas day that "I spent $3.00 for likker yesterday but didn't give that Niggah hospital a cent because I don't like dese big-to-do niggahs." He's a skunk Betty says and Sam says amen.

—Call West 380.

THE OLD CAMPAIGNER DEAD.

St. Louis in particular and the Masonic fraternity in general mourn the death of one of its most noted representatives in the person of James W. Grant affectionately known as "the old Campaigner" who passed away December 18th and was buried from All Saints Episcopal Church of which he was a life long member. Mr. Grant was 69 years old and for 46 years had been the Secretary of Onward Lodge 17 A. F. & A. M. which is a record for efficient service in Masonry. He was the prime factor in all social events in the city of St. Louis and held many offices of trust and honor. The Sun extends its deepest sympathy to relatives.

THE LAST WORD IN CARS.

Is the 1919 Arlo 8 just purchased by W. H. Hubbel at a cost of $4100.00. By this he has made it possible for his people to ride in the best. Steam heated, electric lighted by its own car plant.

To be sure, their beauty of line is the predominating element of attraction. Its attainment, however, was neither accidental nor purely artistic in its conception.

Note the lines of the great, new war aircraft next time you see them in the motion pictures—or better yet, "in the life," if the opportunity affords itself.

Compare them with the lines of this car. You will be sure to note the similarity the same low beveled panels, the same sharp corners, the same high class car, driven by the owner.

This car will be on exhibit at Convention Hall next month at the Automobile show. Bell phone East 2013.
